May 15, 2003

TO: Lt. Governor, Secretary, Undersecretary, Assistant Secretaries, Deputy Assistant Secretaries, Program Managers

FROM: Mary F. Ginn
Human Resources Director

SUBJECT: Reminder of Prohibited Political Activities

In view of the upcoming elections, we would like to issue an early reminder to all classified employees of the prohibited political activities published in the attached General Circular No. 001501, dated September 19, 2002, by the Department of State Civil Service. This document was previously circulated by HR Memo No. 02-092 on October 28, 2002.

Information regarding prohibited political activities is normally sent to employees as a reminder prior to any election. It is also given to new employees, with an explanation, during the new hire orientation process. Please see that all employees are reminded of the restrictions and know where the circular is posted. The restrictions outlined in this publication apply to ALL elections, local, state, and federal.

If you have any questions or concerns, please call the Human Resources Office at (225) 342-0880 or the Department of State Civil Service at (225) 219-9437.
