Francois Larcheveque Grandpre declares that he does not know how to write.

It is possible, however, that this declaration was inserted inadvertently, as the power of attorney was evidently granted a very short time before his death. We presume that weakness prevented his signing as his signature (F. Larche) appears on documents in Succession of Joseph Larche, his brother).

SUCCESSION OF SR. JOSEPH LARCHE.

DOCUMENTS RELATING TO CANCELLATION
OF LEASE OF SLAVES AND TO NEW LEASE THEREOF.

Petition and Recommendations of the Procurator General for the King, representing that three negroes two negresses and two negro children, were leased on July 20, 1739, for a term of two years by the Succession of Joseph Larche to Sr. François Larche, his brother (one of the three children to be leased having died).

The Procurator further represents that Sr. François Larche has died, apparently in financial straits; that his widow has renounced his Succession and reserved her rights; that said negroes will be idle and will bring no profit to the minor daughter of Sr. Joseph Larche.

The Procurator prays and recommends that the lease hereinabove referred to be cancelled and that a new lease by public auction be ordered by the Court.
