SUCCESSION OF
SR. DE COUSTILHAS

Petition of
The Administrator of Vacant Successions.

Petitioner alleges that he has filed a petition praying for an order to sell some of the negroes belonging to said Succession, for the purpose of paying its indebtedness to "the Company"; that said order had not been rendered, but that the Council deliberated orally that the matter should be held in abeyance until the arrival of the King's ship.

Petitioner further alleges that the lease of the plantation which was adjudicated to Sr. Dalcour ended on the 1st instant and that he is willing to feed the slaves thereon for two additional weeks, on the condition that he pay no rent.

Wherefore petitioner prays that an order issue decreasing the sale of said slaves (in preference to the execution of a new lease), or in the alternative that Sr. Dalcour be allowed to feed them, without paying rent, for a period of two weeks.

SUCCESSION OF HUBERT HARANG.

Sr. Jahan, Attorney for Sr. Joseph
Lassus de Marsilly,

vs.

The Administrator of Vacant Successions.

Answer of Sr. D'Auseville,
Administrator of Vacant Successions to petition dated June 30, 1741.

Respondent avers that Sr. Lassus de Marsilly (through his said attorney) filed his opposition to the sale or distribution of the Succession property, pending payment of 1050 livres which Sr. Harang had obligated himself to pay to the Company of the Indies for account of the brother of said Lassus Marsilly.

Respondent further avers that Sr. Dumanoir, Agent of the Company of the Indies, also filed an opposition, based on the same transaction, but claiming 1200 livres.

Respondent further avers that the gist of the matter is that Lassus Marsilly, having delivered to Sr. Harang merchandise valued in excess of 1200 livres, requested said Harang to pay said sum to the Company of the Indies to cover an indebtedness guaranteed by Lassus Marsilly for his brother; that accordingly Harang gave his promissory note for 1200 livres to the Company; that it appears as though Harang had been indebted to said Company and in said sum; that subsequently it was found that Harang owed only 1050 livres to Lassus Marsilly, and that if the real creditor files an opposition for 1050 livres, the Company of the Indies has no right to present one for a larger amount.

Respondent further avers that Marsilly in turn owed only 773 livres 13 sols 4 deniers to the Company of the Indies, which was paid by respondent to Sr. Prevost (for said Company) on June 1, 1741, leaving a balance due by the Succession of Harang to Lassus Marsilly of only 276 livres 6 sols 8 deniers, which respondent is ready to pay to Sr. Jahan in his aforesaid capacity, upon his showing proper power of attorney and surrendering the promissory note of Sr. Harang, for 1200 livres.

Respondent prays for Court costs.
