Mr. Le Chevalier de Chavoy,

Dame Marie Faucon Dumanoir,
formerly widow of Joseph Chauvin de Lery.

MEMORANDUM OF BRIEF.

The co-heirs allege that Madame Faucon Dumanoir (de Chavoy) cannot inherit the usufruct of the property because she has not aided in its acquisition, Sr. de Lery having acquired it before his marriage to her; that the mutual donation contained in their marriage contract was revoked by the birth of a child; that she cannot inherit the movables after the death of her son, except those which were acquired from sources other than paternal inheritance; that she has no rights, under the Black Code for this Province, to the negroes of said succession; that she cannot claim the income on her dower, for the reason that she failed to furnish bond at the time of her second marriage.

There follows a long detailed statement of receipts and expenditures.

The co-heirs pray for judgment in their favor, condemning Madame de Chavoy to deliver to them the property of said succession, on condition that they pay to her each year the sum of 500 livres, representing income on her dower.

A TRUE COPY OF MARRIAGE CONTRACT.

Before the undersigned Royal Notary, friends and relatives, Jean Thevenard, Ship Carpenter, resident of Bordeaux, Parish of St. Michel, enters into a marriage contract with Margueritte Virmaignan, resident of the Parish of Expiner.

Said contract contains the following terms and conditions:

To marry each other by Rites of the Catholic Church;

Parents of future bride make her a settlement consisting of a chest and some linen;

Parties are to have community rights on whatever shall be acquired after marriage;

Parties make donation of their respective shares in the community to the survivor, provided there be no issue born of said contemplated marriage, and should there be children or not, survivor in community is to receive 15#;

Bride is to be suitably dressed in conformity with position of her future husband,

The rings, which shall be given the bride, are to be her property,

It is understood that the property of the future husband and wife is worth 45#.

Done and passed at the home of the mother of the prospective bride at Bordeaux.

Partied hereto declare they do not know how to sign.

PAUL RASTEAU

Declaration and Protest of Dame Marguerite Broutin
wife (or widow) of said
Paul Rasteau
as to rumors of his death in a shipwreck.

Dame Rasteau, who is a minor, herein assisted by Sr. Francois Ignace Broutin, her father (Engineer for the King), declares that for a month rumors have been circulated to the effect that her husband, who has been absent for nine or ten months on business, has been shipwrecked
and has perished on the Coast of Florida.

Appearer declares further that, authorized by her parents, she has had a religious service offered for the repose of her husband's soul in the event that he has died, and for his safe return if he be living and that she invited to said service all parishioners and worthy people.

In order, however, to avoid any appearance of undue haste on her part, she requests that these presents be filed as a protest, asserting upon her conscience that she does not believe that her husband has perished and never will believe it until indisputable proof of his death is shown. She declares further that she has caused

PAUL RASTEAU

Petition of Michel Moulinier,

4698 piastres gourdes.

Petitioner alleges that Sr. Rasteau has collected from Sr. Grenier in this Colony, for account of Sr. Brethous of Bayonne, France, the sum of 4698 piastres gourdes, as evidenced by a certain canceled note, copy of which has been remitted by said Sr. Grenier to said Sr. Brethous; that said Sr. Rasteau has failed to remit said sum to Sr. Brethous and that he advised Sr. Brethous by letter dated November 2, 1745 (copy of which is declared to be attached to these presents) that he was holding said sum in this Colony subject to the orders of said Sr. Brethous.

Petitioner further alleges that he has made demand for the payment of said sum to Dame Rasteau, in the absence of her husband, and that she has averred that she knows nothing of the transaction and that said sum is not in her possession.

Wherefore petitioner prays that Paul Rasteau be ordered to appear and answer suit and that he be condemned to pay to petitioner the sum of 4698 piastres gourdes.
